

STUDIO 238 PROPOSAL

The Harwood Museum of Art invites local artists, independent curators, and community members to submit STUDIO 238 proposals for the consideration of the Museum's Exhibitions Committee. The Exhibitions Committee is comprised of the Curator of Collections and Exhibitions, the Director, the Director of Museum Learning and Public Programs, and the Director of Development. Exhibition selection is guided by the museum's Exhibitions Policy, a document approved by The Harwood Museum of Art's Governing Board in March 2010. These shorter term (3 weeks), smaller exhibitions are generally scheduled 6 months in advance and shown on the adjustable Studio 238 exhibition panels.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSED EXHIBITION

Please provide a brief, abstracted description of the exhibition.

EXHIBITION SELECTION CRITERIA

Please answer the following questions about the proposed exhibition.

- Who is the audience for this exhibition?
- What story does the exhibition tell – what is its message?
- Why is the exhibition a good fit for The Harwood Museum of Art?
- What time frame (month, year) are you proposing for this exhibition? Is there a particular reason for that time frame; i.e., a related event? (Note: openings occur the first week of each month.)
- Does this exhibition present the potential for the Harwood to collaborate with other community organizations?
- Are you aware of any potential funders who might be interested in sponsoring the exhibition?
- What potential does the exhibition present for related educational programming?

PLEASE INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING WITH YOUR SUBMISSION

- An email with 3 – 6 images of representative works and a website for the artist (if applicable).
- A draft exhibition checklist, along with the required linear or square footage (NOTE: maximum space is 48 linear feet or 24 linear feet if using one side of panel).
- At this time The Harwood Museum of Art cannot extend any funds for curatorial fees, crating, shipping, installation, and any other related costs. Please contact the museum with any questions or concerns.
- Any other materials that would help the Exhibition Committee understand the proposed exhibition.
